Thomas Kretschmer:

Mr. Kretschmer studied with Prof. Roland Baldini in Ravensburg and Prof. Nicolas Chumachenco in Freiburg. His diverse interests range from chamber music, orchestra music, opera music to music theater and cabarett. He plays not only modern music, but also historic instruments. His musical rarity is to be seen in his activity in ensemble 1800berlin. In addition to his activity in Ensemble Oriol Berlin und der Kammerakademie Potsdam he is a popular educationist and works with youth and student orchestras. (Jeunesse Musicale, Universität Potsdam...)
He plays a violin of Stephan von Baehr, Paris 2005

Almuthe Senfft von Pilsach:

Mister Senfft von Pilsach studied with H. A. Ogilvie at Alanus-Kunsthochschule, Bonn and with Prof. L. Hokanson at Hochschule für Musik und Darstellende Kunst in Frankfurt/Main. After he got the Diploma of art he decided to study further in London for 5 years with Maria Curzio and also appeared there as a soloist and chamber musician in the concerts. Aside he involved in the educational work in der Hill-House International Juniorschool in Knightsbridge. Since 1991 he works as a freelance artist in Berlin mainly in the field of chamber music, as a member of various orchestras in Berlin and teaches in Musikschule Friedrichshain-Kreuzberg
